
WAYNE “TREE” ROLLINS

- Professional Basketball Coach - Resume (C.V.) - Nationality: American

SUMMARY of QUALIFICATIONS

Accomplished and results-oriented basketball coach with over 20 years experience in professional leagues. Proven ability to build and motivate a cohesive team of individuals from various backgrounds and social settings for the purpose of achieving a common goal. Excellent public relation skills in dealing with the media, team, and counseling issues. Aptitude for cutting to the chase of a problem while maintaining steady working relationships under high pressure situations. Areas of expertise:

- Coaching and Mentoring
- Performance Optimization
- Training and Development
- Organizational Development
- Relationship Management
- Strategic Recruiting Leadership
- Conflict Resolution
- Risk Assessment
- Problem Resolution

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Memphis Grizzlies (NBA)
Training Post Players

September 2009 – 2009

Washington Mystics (WNBA), Washington, DC

2005 – 2008

Head Coach (2007 – 2008)

Bench Assistant Coach (2005 – 2007)

Served as Player Development and Game Coach. Assisted with all phases of post player development, video scouting, practice and game planning, college scouting, planning games to be scouted and pre-game preparation.

Kentucky Colonels, Louisville, KY

2004 – 2005

President and General Manager

Oversaw day-to-day operations of the team.

Macon Blaze Inaugural Season (World Basketball Association), Macon, GA

2004 – 2004

Director of Basketball Operations, Head Coach, Director of Player Personnel

National Basketball Development League (Greenville Groove), Greenville, SC

2002 – 2003

Head Coach

Completed first year as Head Coach and General Manager.

Indiana Pacers (NBA), Indianapolis, IN

2000 – 2002

Bench Assistant Coach

Player development and game coach. Assisted with the all around development of the players, video scouting, practice and game planning as well as helped the head coach with the responsibilities during the games.

Washington Wizards (NBA), Washington, DC

1999 – 2000

Bench Assistant Coach

Managed all around development of the players as well as video scouting, bench coaching, advanced scouting, practice planning, and pre-game preparation.

Orlando Magic (NBA), Orlando, FL

1993 – 1999

Player/Coach (1994 – 1996)

Bench Assistant Coach (1993 – 1999)

SELECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Named to the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame, 2007.
- Named to the 50th Anniversary ACC Men's Basketball Team, 2003.
- Named to the SC State Athletic Hall of Fame, 2002.
- 1975 Pan American Games (Gold Medal Winners)
- First-round draft pick of the Atlanta Hawks.
- Played 11 seasons with the Atlanta Hawks, 2 seasons with the Cleveland Cavaliers, 1 season with the Detroit Pistons, 2 seasons with the Houston Rockets, and 2 seasons as player/coach with the Orlando Magic.
- Helped develop/teach Billy Thomas to be selected with the Sportsmanship Award for the NBDL, 2002-03.
- Helped develop Jermaine O'Neal into the Most Improved Player in 2001-2002 seasons.
- Served as Assistant Coach in the Phoenix NBA All-Star game.
- Helped develop Shaquille O'Neal, Anfernee "Penny" Hardaway, and Jermaine O'Neal into NBA All-Star players.
- Helped develop Darrell Armstrong into the Six Man of the Year in 1999.
- Coached in the Chicago Pre-Draft Camps, The New York Summer League, Salt Lake City Summer League, and The Shaw Summer League.
- Worked with several players on an individual basis during the off seasons.

EDUCATION & HONORS

Clemson University – Clemson, SC

- Played under Coach Tate Lock and Bill Foster for 2 seasons each at Clemson University.
- Ranked as one of the top 10 ACC basketball players for 3 consecutive years.
- Only Clemson player to average double/double for 4 straight seasons.
- One of the most decorated athletes in school's history. Recognized as the first athlete in any sport at Clemson University to have jersey number retired.