SCOUTING REPORT ON DEVON WADE: Devon is a proto-type player European and NBA teams are now looking for. A 6'9" – 6'10" player who plays the forward, Center & shooting guard positions. Devon can shoot the 3 point shot extremely well. Had a career high 6 three pointers in one game last season. Shot 40% from the 3 point line last year. Runs the floor well on the wing. He also drives to the basket very strong. Awesome inside/outside game. We believe Devon could make an NBA team next season. His skills are way above average. We had the pleasure of watching him at the Pro Combine, and he averaged 23.3pppg against NBA players. NBDL and CBA teams very interested in this guy. Definitely a Division 1 player. One year away from the league.

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCE AND TESTIMONIAL:

Gadi Kedar (Current Head Coach of Holland National Team): +972 505204554 (Israel)

Gadi Kedar Says: "Devon Wade is a very strong player who can play back to the basket, he can shoot well and is a good passer. When I coached Devon with the Oberwart Gunners in Austria he always liked to work hard during practices and games. He had a great attitude and was a good guy both on and off the court."
