SCOUTING REPORT ON RASHAAD POWELL:

Powell's grit and determination make him an effective rebounder and inside presence. Was only 6-2 at High School, and played guard. Then, he grew up 3 inches, and played inside at the college level, showing great defensive skills, despite having to play against players who were five, six, sometimes seven inches taller. Now, he's a small forward who can play at both guard positions and the power forward position in some leagues. He has great fundamentals, and can do almost anything on the court. One of the most versatile player in the world market. Powell scores effectively inside and from the perimeter. Has a nice soft touch. Great defender.
